

Media consolidation has to stop. When a broadcasting company like Sinclair decides to show an anti Kerry documentary on which some portions are distorted and stops Ted Kopple from showing the names of our dead soldiers our democracy is at stake. We need to strenghten our media rules and stop giving the monopoly to all these big companies. We need our public airwaves back. Shame on Michael Powell.